

Read CLF Executive Director's Commentary on "Genetic Screening for Disease and Enhancement" in GOP

Jennifer Kimball, B.E.L.

July 11, 2008

The recent announcement of the first UK baby created with a new found product guaranteed to be free from breast cancer marks a new turn in human reproduction. While most of the attention has focused on the ability to provide a guarantee for the avoidance of a life-threatening illness, the question surrounding the therapeutic role of medicine has slid by the wayside.
